I took a chance and bought the Echo CS 600P when it first came out and couldn't be more happy. I might do the same with one of these. I just hope the actual weight is what the spec's say it is supposed to be. The price is not that far off from a Stihl 261, looks lilke about a C note difference in retail.

All-right, you have me convinced. Send a new Echo CS-530 on over and I'll run a few cords and send it back. As payment for use of the saw, I'll write an objective honest opinion on how it did. I have next year's fire wood to get ready and some of it has been seasoning for a few months now. Should be able to give it a good workout.
