Hi, my sis went to a seat check today (yay), she had a seat she picked up at a garage sale, so they gave her a new one. It's an evenflo discovery 5, I don't know much about them, but I thought the handle had to be down while in the car?? I asked her if they told her that, and she said no. I quickly looked through the manual, but didn't see where it said that it has to be down.

It does not clip to other strollers like other brands of infant car seats so I have had to remove my infant and place him in the stroller. This defeats the purpose of the carrier. Also the shade is very flimsy and has support on one side only so when the wind blows the side without the support folds in over my sons face. Lastly this shade broke after 5 months of use.
